SECTION 3 – STUDENT CERTIFICATION
Withdrawal from the training program may terminate your GI Bill benefits and may require repayment of VA funds.
Financial aid is subject to program attendance and will be refunded to the Department of Education in accordance with their policies, if applicable.
I understand that I must bring the following items listed on page one; paragraph one of the VA Education Benefit Checklist to Perry Tech before I can be certified to the VA.
I have been made aware of other sources of funding available to help with the costs of tools that certain VA education benefits may not cover. Sources are listed on page one; paragraph two of the VA Education Benefit Checklist.
I understand that I will be liable for any overpayment I might receive from the Veterans Administration for tuition, books, tools, housing allowance and other supported costs.
I understand that I may choose to exercise an externship option in my last quarter of instruction at Perry Technical Institute. I also understand that if the externship site is out of the state of Washington, for which Perry Tech is awarding classroom credit, and tuition and fees are being paid for by the VA, the externship site must be vetted by the Veterans Administration or State Approving Agency. In these instances if the externship site is not vetted, the VA may decide not to pay for tuition and fees for the term at a prorated amount determined by the VA, and may result in a debt to the student or the school up to the full amount of tuition and fees charged to the VA.
I, _____ hereby declare that I have read the terms and conditions to receive my Veteran Benefits. Failure to comply with these terms will result in debt to the Department of Veterans Affairs and delay of payments.
