

Commercial HVAC/R Service Technician

JMC Ventilation/Refrigeration LLC, a leader in large raw vegetable storage ventilation and refrigeration systems is currently seeking experienced, hardworking, loyal and dedicated, career minded individuals to join our team. Individuals with passion, that take ownership for the work they provide, are most successful with our organization.

Ideal candidates will bring knowledge and skills that will support our commercial technical services while remaining focused on our customer base and driven to participate for continued career growth with the company.

In exchange for this enthusiasm and commitment, we offer a family employee-development work environment in an employee-development valued culture with competitive wages and benefits.

Our Commercial HVAC/R Service Technicians are responsible for customer care and the installation, maintenance, diagnosis and repair of systems in refrigerated storage.

Responsibilities:

- Exceptional and quality customer care and service to growing customer base
- Installation of ventilation and refrigeration equipment
- Service of ventilation and refrigeration equipment
- Provide customers with opportunities to maintain and update refrigeration systems through knowledgeable up-selling of products and services
- Diagnose, analyze, investigate, and correct common causes of malfunction in light industrial refrigeration and associated equipment
- Gain and maintain professional licensing eligibility
- All other duties as assigned

Requirements, Skills & Experience:

- Valid Driver's License w/ good driving record for company's insurance qualifications
- Strong mechanical knowledge of various components used in raw product storage refrigeration systems preferred
- EPA certification
- Commercial and light industrial experience preferred
- Diagnostics & repair, PLC and Microprocessor Controls a plus
- Demonstrate an understanding of electrical systems
- Ability to interpret schematics and wiring diagrams
- Strong mechanical aptitude skill required
- Familiar with use of refrigeration diagnostic, testing and hand tools
- Ability to work independently and exercise good judgment
- Must work well under pressure and ensure safe performance at all times
- Must demonstrate a cooperative behavior with customers, co-workers, supervisors, and management in a team environment
- Must be organized with good time management skills
- Must be willing to obtain additional licenses
- Computer proficient with Microsoft Suite and other software programs

Qualifications:

- Minimum of 5 years HVAC/R or a combination of education and experience.
- A degree from a technical school or equivalent for commercial HVAC/R
- 06A Electrical License preferred
- Language Skills – Ability to read, analyze, and interpret equipment schematics, drawings, manufacturer’s literature, and technical procedures. Ability to effectively present information and respond to questions from supervisors and managers

Physical/Other Requirements:

- English Literacy required
- Must have a flexible schedule; early morning, evening & weekends as needed
- Must successfully complete pre-employment drug testing
- Required to work in inclement weather
- Ability to climb stairs and ladders
- Lift objects up to fifty pounds
- Requires standing, stooping, twisting, lifting, and other physical movements requiring full range of motion

Job Snapshot:

- Employment type: Hourly, Full-Time
- Experience: minimum 3 yrs. experience with education or 5 yrs. work experience
- Education: Degree from a technical school or equivalent for commercial refrigeration service
- 06A Electrical License preferred

Benefits:

- Competitive Compensation
- 100% Paid “Employee Only” Medical Dental Vision Plan
- Retirement Plan
- Paid Holidays
- Paid Vacation

To Apply:

Submit a resume to hr@jmcvr.com

JMC Ventilation & Refrigeration, LLC is an Equal Opportunity Employer